

Cumberland Ellis

March 2010 - Family Law Update

By way of an update, please find below links to the most recent articles on our website which have been written by members of our Family Department.

We do hope you will find these articles of interest, and if you require further information on any of the issues raised, please get in touch with the writer of the article or your usual contact in the Family Team.

Hazel Wright, Head of Family Department

Who Do You Think You Are?

Richard Adams discusses birth registration and parentage following the recent decision in M v W.

Published by Family Law Journal December 2009/January 2010

For Richer, For Poorer

Graeme Fraser questions the judicial trend of higher income awards on divorce which provide for financial dependency for life.

Published by Family Law Journal December 2009/January 2010

Four Ways To Leave Your Lover

The song talks about fifty ways, but we advise you that in the world of separation, divorce and family work on which our Family Law Department advises, there are really only four. Hazel Wright looks at some of the pros and cons of each.

Pre-Nuptial Agreements: Where are we now?

How binding are Pre-Nuptial Agreements under the current law? This is a question Conrad Adam was asked to consider recently as part of a live webinar presentation on behalf of LexisNexis.

School's Out For Summer - but what does that mean for separated families?

With summer holidays now being planned, Frances Kelly considers the issues which need discussion where the parents of children do not live together.

Just Help Yourself To My Love \(But Not My Inbox\)

Where couples share home computers for financial and social online activities, allegations relating to access to confidential data may become a problem when a couple finds their relationship in difficulties. Graeme Fraser and Andrew Gleeson (IT Manager) offer guidance on preventive measures to take.

Disclaimer: the content of this email is designed for guidance only, and is not intended to be a substitute for detailed legal advice. Consequently, whilst every care is taken to ensure that the information is accurate, we cannot accept responsibility for any liability to any person as a result of any errors or omissions.

In accordance with the Privacy and Electronic Communication (EC Directive) Regulations 2003, if you would like to be removed from this mailing list, you are invited to click here. Please note that if you are an individual receiving this news bulletin, it is because we believe that the Regulations' 'soft opt-in' exception applies to you.

Cumberland Ellis LLP is a limited liability partnership registered in England. Registered number OC30937. Registered Office Atrium Court, 15 Jockey's Fields, London WC1R 4QR. Regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority. A copy of the SRA's rules can be found at <http://www.sra.org.uk/solicitors/code-of-conduct.page>. Any reference to a partner denotes a member of Cumberland Ellis LLP.